Director David Leitch told Comic Book Resources: "I think it's a very Cold War-era spy movie. We're not trying to put that into a contemporary gun-for-hire action thriller, because by modern day standards Lorraine is not a killer. She's not out there killing anyone who does not deserve it, and she's certainly not killing innocent people. I think we want to stay in that Cold War era where your morals are put into question, and the ends justify the means."
